

Four Rivers Heritage Area Presents

An Independence Day Heritage Stride:

Free!!

The Signers' Stroll!

When: Sunday, July 4, 2010, 8:30 am

Where: Begin at the Charles Carroll House (107 Duke of Gloucester Street)* and will end at the William Paca House (186 Prince George Street)

What: A short family-friendly trek (1.25 miles) through the Annapolis' historic district stopping along the way at all four Maryland-based Signers' homes, as well as sites related to our theme of "Liberty" - ten stops in all! The Signers' Stroll is an interactive guided tour for adults, families, and especially kids - they will be invited to play the roles of historical figures! All ages welcome.

Cost: FREE!! Pre-registration is requested by calling the Four Rivers Heritage Area at 410-222-1805 or by email heritage\_area@aacounty.org

Come in your most patriotic red, white, and blue attire!
Play our History Hop game and win a prize!

*Please, no parking in the Charles Carroll House lot.
Street and garage parking is available nearby.