

It takes a village...

Working Collaboratively with the Public Schools

A Free Workshop for Heritage Professionals

You are invited to attend this free workshop on working with Anne Arundel County public schools. This is your opportunity to hear from those at the top!

- What: Workshop for Heritage Museum Educators
- Date: Monday, October 4, 2010, 9:30 to 11:00 a.m.
- Place: Visitor's Center, Historic London Town and Gardens, 839 Londontown Road, Edgewater, Md.
- Who Should Attend: Heritage site educators and history professionals who work with students from the public schools; site directors planning for school group visits

Speakers will include Terry Poisson, Coordinator of Social Studies, Anne Arundel County Public Schools, Dr. Maureen McMahon, Assistant Superintendent of Advanced Studies and Programs, Carlesa Finney, Director of Equity Assurance & Human Relations, and Kim Callison, Coordinator of Elementary Reading

Topics:

- Working Collaboratively with the Public Schools
- Alternative Sources of Funding
- Where is the community in Community Schools?
- Integrating literacy and literature into museum education programs
- Building students' background knowledge and sense of belonging

Advance reservations are required as seating is limited! Please e-mail the Four Rivers Heritage Area Office at heritage\_area@aacounty.org or call us at 410-222-1805 to reserve your seat.